The LINK Project

The LINK Project provides developmental, audiological, speech, vision and social-emotional screening for children ages birth to six in Tulsa county child care centers and family child care homes. Each child enrolled at the facility is eligible to receive services by the LINK team, with parent consent. Parents are asked to complete a consent form, a health history and a developmental inventory. Following the screenings, a LINK representative will meet with the family to discuss screening results and to provide developmental and educational handouts and resources. After the child's individual needs are identified, appropriate referrals and interventions may be recommended and will be coordinated with the child's family, community resources and the child's physician. There is no charge to the family or child care center for LINK Project services. For more information call 918-699-4250. Criteria: Tulsa County as wait list and funding allow.

Melissa Griffin, M.S.
Program Coordinator
Oklahoma State Department of Health
1000 NE 10th St.
Revised 2/7/2013

Oklahoma City, OK 73117

Telephone Consultation:

The Warmline for Oklahoma Child Care Providers offers free telephone consultation to child care providers on numerous topics of concern. Warmline consultants are trained to support providers in areas of early childhood behavior and development, health, and safety. Consultants can refer providers to appropriate services and resources within their communities, and can provide on-going telephone support and follow-up when needed. Consultants answer the Warmline Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. Messages left after hours will be answered as soon as a consultant is available. Questions can also be emailed in to the Warmline at warmline@health.ok.gov.

Automated Topic Library:

Pre-recorded messages on a variety of topics related to child care, health, and development are available on the Warmline 24 hours a day. Calling the Warmline or emailing at Warmline@health.ok.gov you can request a brochure with a list of topics.

Child Care Consultation Network:

The Child Care Warmline is responsible for coordination of a network of trained consultants who are available to provide to support center staff on a regular basis to help them accomplish one or more of the following goals:

- Maintain children in a child care who are in danger of being expelled
- Support staff that care for children
- Connect staff and families to resources
- Assist with room arrangement and program planning
- Model positive behavior and guidance techniques
- Model prevention by showing staff how to promote well being in children
- Offer observation and referral when necessary
- Be available to families of children in child care through consultation and parent meetings

Agencies who participate in the consultation network in the Tulsa area include:

- Center for Early Childhood Professional Development
- Family & Children's Services
- Tulsa Health Department – Child Guidance Program

To request a consultant, child care providers should call the Warmline at 1-888-574-5437 or contact one of the local partnering agencies. Consultation is free to Child Care centers that have a subsidy contract with OKDHS.
